VIP and VVIP Security

345. SHRI C.M. IBRAHIM: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) what are the guide-lines for providing personal and household security to VIPs and VVIPs;

(b) whether security in respect of a number of important personalities have lately been withdrawn/ relaxed or curtailed; if so, the details in this regard;

(c) whether any mishaps have since been taken place with respect to some VIPs concerned, if so, the details thereof; and

(d) whether Government have reviewed or are reviewing these cases?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CH. VIDYASAGAR RAO): (a) Guidelines for the security of President of India, Vice-President of India and the Prime Minister are contained in Blue Books. The policy on security of other protectees has recently been revised and announced in the month of February, 2000.

(b) Review of security of individual protectees is periodically undertaken on the basis of latest threat perception. The last such review was made in May, 2000 in which the security of some important personalities has been withdrawn/ reduced. Disclosure of their details is not considered advisable in the interest of security of these protectees.

(c) No, Sir.

(d) Representations against withdrawal/reduction in security are considered and appropriate decisions are taken in the light of the latest threat perception in each case.
